Leadership Skills in Healthcare

Are you a health care facility leader ready to take your professional development to the next level?

- Increase your impact
- Build on your natural strengths as a leader
- Inspire the best in others
- Get out of your own way
- Trust yourself and your decisions
- Improve your communication effectiveness
- Enhance the quality of your relationships

Leadership excellence is the cornerstone to success.

If your imaging department is experiencing high turnover, low employee engagement or loss of productivity, you may be feeling the pressure to do something. There is untapped potential in your leaders and your organization – and this workshop will reveal how you can begin to unleash this power.

Leslie Kennedy is a seasoned executive who coaches leaders on bringing more of themselves to their work. Drawing on over 26 years of experience in the performance arena, Leslie is committed to creating, and delivering pragmatic solutions that produce results.
